NATIONAL EXPERT SPEAKS

Robert W. Barner has over nineteen years of experience in the area of training and organizational development. For the past nine years, as the Vice President for Parry Consulting Services, Inc. (PCS), Bob has provided consultation and training in total quality management, career development and team building for such companies as AT&T, Honeywell, Harris and GTE.

His most recent book, Crossing The Minefield: Tactics for Overcoming Today's Toughest Management Challenges deals with the subject of management survival in the nineties. Bob is frequently referenced as an expert on the subjects of career development and visionary leadership. During the past year he has participated in over forty television and radio interviews, or quoted by such sources as the Wall Street Journal, The Detroit Free Press, Executive Management Magazine, Executive Solutions, and syndicated columnists Paula Ancona and Jim Pawluk.

He has published articles on the subjects of leadership, employee empowerment, career development and continuous improvement for The National Business Employment Weekly, The Journal for Quality and Participation, The Training and Development Journal, HR Magazine, and The Futurist.

Mr. Barner has been a keynote speaker and presenter at national conferences and symposia, including the American Management Association's 65th Annual Human Resource Conference (April 1994) and the forthcoming Annual Meeting of the World Future Society in July 1995. His most recent workshop for executive managers and CEOs in Tampa will provide valuable insights into the challenges facing managers and companies in the future.

Valencia Community College is pleased to bring this expert to our local community for this valuable seminar at no cost to you. Join us as we investigate organization in the future.

THE FUTURE WORKPLACE

On Wednesday, April 19, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at Valencia's Technology Innovation Center, Robert Barner, a leading expert in organizational development will lead a seminar for managers, and business owners entitled:

"MANAGING THE WORKPLACE OF THE FUTURE."

Mr. Barner, a distinguished career consultant, author, and professor has provided consultation and training in organizational development, team building and total quality management for many national corporations. His books, articles, presentations, and keynote speeches are acclaimed throughout the business world.

Introduced in the seminar are the 7 major trends that are reshaping today's workplace, including the growth of the virtual organization, and the emergence of the just-in-time workforce. The seminar is specially designed for business owners, managers, employers and human resource personnel.

This no cost seminar includes a small-group exercise with other workshop participants on critical work issues that are relevant to your organization. Don't miss this valuable session!
